

Virtual Kiwi Chat Day

Tuesday June 2nd 2020, 10am – 10:45am

Welcomes all school aged users of alternative and augmentative communication systems.

*This time the Kiwi Chat Day will be held at
Your home or School using Zoom*

THEME OF THE DAY: Groovy Joe, Ice Cream and Dinosaurs!

TIMETABLE

10:00am	Arrival and introductions	Students and carers will be welcomed and introduced to staff running the day. It would be great if students could use their communication device to greet staff and others attending.
	Funny photo/ add a caption	A funny photo will be on screen. While you wait for everyone to join have a chat about it and complete the caption task given on the screen.
	Talk about Ice Cream!!!	Yum! So much to discuss!
	Share a story	Listen to a reading of Groovy Joe and let's talk about what is happening in the book.
	Let's move!	Let's have a dance to warm up our brains
	Activity	Watch our teacher friend Jane show us how to do a fun activity with shaving foam and colours. You can try this after the meeting has finished.
	Drumming	Practise some drumming to go with the story theme
	Story characters and speech bubbles	Make some props to go with the story...what would they say?
	Chat sheet	We will talk you through the Chat Sheet that we have provided you to talk about following our session,
	Vocabulary suggestions:	We are promoting the use of core words for our students who are using communication systems. Words related to
